Mental Health Needs Assessment

Mental Health Needs Assessment is usually court-ordered or requested by a Department of Human Services case worker.

Mental Health Needs Assessment is usually court ordered or requested by a Department of Human Services case worker. It involves completing a bio-psycho-social assessment to determine an individual's strengths, mental health service needs and is focused on answering a specific clinical question (e.g. What is the person's diagnosis?).

Since 1875, ASPENPOINTE has empowered clients, enriched lives and embraced purpose through individual and family services in mental health, substance abuse, employment & career development, education, housing, jail diversion & reintegration, telephonic wellness, and provider network services.
