Pathways ACCESS Center

The Pathways ACCESS Center is a consumer-driven community center for clients of AspenPointe.

The Pathways ACCESS Center is a consumer-driven training and support center for clients of AspenPointe. In addition to creative programs in art and photography, the center provides a safe place for clients to access: recovery and wellness support; career development services; community volunteering opportunities; support from peers and work toward self-sufficiency.

Art Therapist Kim Le Nguyen and Pathways ACCESS Center clients created art work symbolizing the road to recovery.
